

H.R. 1 Benefit Policy Updates & Community Resources

H.R. 1 may affect certain public benefits and healthcare coverage, including SNAP food assistance, Apple Health (Medicaid), energy assistance, and benefit eligibility for some immigrant and non-citizen families. Below are official resources from Washington State government agencies and related organizations to help community members understand the latest changes and how they may be affected.

General H.R. 1 Information

DSHS: How H.R. 1 May Affect Public Benefits

Learn about potential changes to Washington State public benefits and related services under H.R. 1.

View Official Information

Overview of Key H.R. 1 Changes

Get a quick overview of the major ways H.R. 1 may affect Washington State benefit programs.

View Official Information

SNAP Food Assistance

SNAP H.R. 1 Information (Chinese)

Chinese-language information about potential changes to SNAP food assistance under H.R. 1.

View Official Information

Changes to SNAP and LIHEAP Energy Assistance

If your household receives both SNAP and LIHEAP energy assistance, review information about related policy changes.

View Official Information

Apple Health / Medicaid

Latest Apple Health Policy Changes

Learn about potential changes to Apple Health (Medicaid) eligibility, renewals, and other requirements under H.R. 1.

View Official Information

Upcoming Apple Health Changes

Review the latest policy updates and implementation timelines that Apple Health members should be aware of.

View Official Information

Apple Health Work Requirements and Renewal Information

Learn about future work requirements and renewal rules that may apply to certain Apple Health members.

View Official Information

Immigrant and Non-Citizen Families

H.R. 1 Apple Health Information for Non-Citizens (Chinese)

Chinese-language information about how H.R. 1 may affect Apple Health coverage for certain non-citizens.

View Official Information

H.R. 1 Information for Immigrant and Refugee Families

Learn about potential changes to benefits and services for immigrant and refugee families under H.R. 1.

View Official Information

Need Assistance?

If you are unsure whether the new policies may affect your SNAP, Apple Health, or other public benefits, CISC can help you understand official information and connect you with appropriate community resources.

Reminder: Benefit policies, eligibility requirements, and implementation dates may continue to change. Please refer to the latest information published by Washington State government agencies and other relevant official organizations.