The Seattle Office of Labor Standards (OLS) is hosting listening sessions to gather input and suggestions on how to best communicate and engage with domestic workers. Feedback collected will help guide the work of future communication and policy strategies.

- Participants will receive a $50.00 gift card
- Immigration status will not be asked

If interested, participants must:

- Be 18 years of age
- Provide domestic services to individuals or households in private homes as: a nanny, cook, home care worker, household manager, house cleaner, or gardener.
- Work within the city limits of Seattle (not required to live in Seattle).

Registration deadline: Thursday, December 9, 2021 at 6 pm
