Phase 3: Restaurants and shops can serve more customers

On Monday, March 22, King County entered Phase 3 of the state's Healthy Washington - Roadmap to Recovery plan, which will allow more activities to resume. Businesses, restaurants, gyms and museums will be allowed to increase capacity from 25 percent to 50 percent.

For more details about the Healthy Washington plan, please visit the Governor's Healthy Washington site.

As we face new more contagious COVID-19 variants, we must stay as vigilant as ever to keep businesses open and COVID activity trending down. In addition to wearing well-fitted masks and social distancing, Public Health—Seattle & King County encourages businesses and facilities operating indoors to prioritize ventilation and air flow, plus outdoor, takeout and curbside offerings.

Public Health Guidance

Help stop the spread of COVID-19:

- Wear a well-fitted mask around people you don't live with (even close friends and family).
- Stay home as much as possible.
- Follow the Governor's limitations on indoor gatherings.
- Avoid gathering with people you don't live with.
- Quarantine and get tested at the first sign of illness or if you've been around someone with COVID-19.
